“La Grande Pomme” is a big-apple sequence, choreographed by Angela Andrews and various swing dancers in the Montpellier region of France, especially Cathy and Gilbert, to “Jeep Jockey Jump”. These notes are compiled from study of a video of them performing this routine in the street outside The Comfy Pew in Gloucester in 1998. We think it is accurate, but please do let us know if we have made a mistake.

The dance begins with people running on (to the beat) and pairing up, facing each other but with no hold.

A theme:

- On 8-1-2 start a fall-off-the-log on the R foot, on 3 kick your R foot forward, on 4 drop on to your R foot and kick your L out to the side: say “Woo!!” and freeze.
- On 8-1-2 start a fall-off-the-log on the L foot, on 3 kick your L foot forward, on 4 drop on to your L foot and kick your R out to the side: say “Woo!!” and freeze.
- On 8-1-2 start a fall-off-the-log on the R foot, on 3 kick your R foot forward, on 4 drop on to your R foot and kick your L out to the side: say “Woo!!” and freeze.

B theme:

- Flying Charleston(ish): on 1 kick R fwd, step back on your R on 3, rock step LR on 4,5, moving to the right of your partner and turning your back to them. Step on L 6 Frog on 7 (you are back to back)
- Flying Charleston the same way; you will be facing each other again on the rock step (and will have changed places from the start of this verse), and will be back to back again on the frog.
- Flying Charleston again, this time finish up facing, and in your original positions.
- Turn to your left, right round, frogging on 5.
